Century Bank Of Georgia Adds Moore As V.P.

CARTERSVILLE – David H. Caswell, President at Century Bank of Georgia, today announced that veteran banker Wayne Moore has joined the bank and will serve as Vice President with focus on Business Development.

Moore began his financial services career in 1978 as a Vice President of Georgia Farm Credit in Cartersville. He has also been affiliated with Peoples Bank, Bank of America, SunTrust and, most recently, GB&T, where he served as Community Banking Executive for the past 12 years. His entire career has been based in his hometown of Cartersville.

He is a 1978 graduate of Berry College, where he earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration. In 1986, he completed studies at the Georgia Banking School, conducted at the University of Georgia and, that same year, graduated from the Consumer Credit School held at the University of Oklahoma. In 1989, he graduated from the Graduate School of Banking, conducted at Louisiana State University and in 1993 graduated from Bank of America's Commercial Credit School.

Moore is active in a host of civic, economic development and charitable organizations. He and his wife Carolyn and daughter Hannah are members of Tabernacle Baptist Church where Moore has served as a Deacon, Sunday School Teacher, Chairman of the Stewardship Committee and Chairman of the Personnel Committee. In 2013, Moore served as Chairman of the Cartersville-Bartow County Chamber of Commerce and was a 1991 graduate of Leadership Bartow. He is the past President of The Bartow Education Foundation where he continues to serve as a board member. Presently, Moore serves on the Board of Trustees for Cartersville Medical Center and is a board member of The Boys and Girls Club. He is also a member of the Cartersville Rotary Club and the Cartersville County Club.

“We are pleased to announce that Wayne is a part of the Century Bank of Georgia family,” Caswell said. “His many years of experience, all in Cartersville, and his active involvement in organizations that address the well-being of our community, will serve our customers well for many years to come.”
