

Media Contact: Heather Cook
BD/Marketing Manager
hcook@excbank.com
478-457-2266

For Immediate Release

Exchange Bank Welcomes Anne Hood

Milledgeville, GA (August 1, 2022) – Exchange Bank President and Chief Executive Officer John C. Childs, Jr., is pleased to announce that Anne Hood has joined Exchange Bank as Loan Compliance and CRA Officer.

Hood brings to Exchange Bank twenty-plus years of banking experience and extensive compliance knowledge. She began her career with Bank of America as a credit underwriter. She continued her career at Security Bank of Bibb County and Security Bank of Jones County as a credit administration officer, compliance operations risk manager at State Bank and Trust, and a loan compliance specialist at Morris Bank.

Hood graduated from ABA National Compliance School, GBA Compliance School, and Dale Carnegie, along with many bank-related continuing education courses throughout her career. Hood and her husband (Allen) have lived in Gray, GA, for 29 years. They have a son (Joshua) married to their daughter-in-law (Tyler) and are proud grandparents of a pup named Ollie. In her spare time, Hood enjoys crafting, reading, and spending time with family.

About Exchange Bank

Exchange Bank, chartered May 20, 1903, has exercised a position of financial leadership throughout the years. We offer a wide array of banking services and have experienced strong growth that has allowed Exchange Bank to be a vital part of the community for over 119 years. Member FDIC

###