Carrollton, GA – American Commerce Bank (ACB) has opened a new office in downtown Carrollton. The bank hosted a ribbon cutting and celebration on Thursday, March 17.

American Commerce is the only community bank with headquarters in West Georgia. In early 2021, bank leadership decided the time was right for a larger presence in Carrollton. The 314 Newnan Street location is a completely renovated “motor branch,” offering state-of-the-art drive-through convenience as well as a walk-in service for customers in Carrollton and Carroll County.

To staff this expansion, ACB brought together a team of bankers with more than 50 years of financial services experience. Market Executive Jeff Bush and Branch Manager Jackie Norton have dedicated their entire banking careers to serving Carroll and surrounding counties.

American Commerce Bank President and CEO, David Tate, said, “We are very excited to be expanding our presence in West Georgia, the area where many of our team members live, work and play. They are looking forward to welcoming their friends, neighbors and customers to our Community of One.”

American Commerce Bank is headquartered in, Bremen, GA, with offices in Carrollton, Johns Creek and Tallahassee, FL. ACB is a full-service financial institution offering market-leading banking, treasury management services and SBA lending programs.
