Stewart Promoted to Business Banking Officer

STATESBORO, GA – Renasant Bank announced today the promotion of Amber Stewart to Business Banking Officer for the Statesboro commercial team. She will support the bank through commercial lending and business development efforts. Stewart has been with Renasant Bank since 2017.

“Amber has been instrumental in the growth of our client base because of her professionalism and her commitment to the customers that she has the privilege to serve,” said Carolyn Ethridge, Market President. “It is important that we choose leaders and team members in our markets that will represent the values that are important to our Bank - integrity, service and community engagement. Amber is a talented and proven banker who exemplifies these traits. I am thrilled to have her continue to expand her role as part of our commercial team.”

Stewart and her husband, Jeb, reside in Bulloch County and attend Statesboro First United Methodist Church. Stewart serves her community through several local organizations. She currently sits on the Statesboro Bulloch Chamber of Commerce Small Business Committee as Co-Chair. She also serves on the Schenkel Golf Committee and the Forest Heights Country Club Membership Committee.

Stewart is currently enrolled in the Georgia Banking Association's Georgia Banking School and is a 2016 graduate of The Terry College of Business at the University of Georgia with a degree in Business Administration Management.
