River City Bank announces the opening of a Loan Production Office in Dawsonville, Georgia

ROME, GA, January 13, 2023 – River City Bank, a community bank headquartered in Rome, Georgia, announces the opening of its Loan Production Office in Dawsonville, Georgia. The office, located at 32 Jack Heard Road, Suite 105, is currently open to customers and offers a full suite of competitive consumer, construction, commercial, and mortgage lending solutions.

The loan production office is led by Market President, Will Wade, who is a long-term resident of Dawson County, an experienced banker, and an active leader in the community. Will joined River City Bank in 2021 after serving as Senior Vice President, Market President at a financial institution in Lumpkin/Dawson Counties. His banking career spans over 20 years and includes consumer lending, consumer real estate, construction, and commercial banking experience. He is deeply connected to the communities of North Georgia where he volunteers and serves on multiple civic and non-profit organizations while also currently serving as the State House Representative for District 9. Will shared, “I am thrilled to be a part of a true community bank, and I’m eager to officially welcome Dawson County to River City. I look forward to leading our local team to serve the lending needs of the citizens and businesses in Dawson County.”

Jamie Tallent, President & CEO, stated, “We are excited to continue the strategic expansion of our company’s geographic footprint bringing our brand of banking to Dawson County. Will has served this community for over two decades and has become a reliable and trusted financial resource and leader. I’m excited for Will to have this opportunity to reconnect and serve his customers and the community once more. Having grown up in northeast Georgia, I am very familiar with Dawson County, its people, its rich heritage, and the future growth opportunities that are rapidly changing this dynamic market. It’s for these reasons I believe expanding into Dawson County is both right for the community and our company. Our team of dedicated bankers are committed and focused on building trust and earning our customers business one day at a time by consistently delivering class-leading customer service, matched with competitive products and services. We are very excited about our future in Dawson County.”
